CALL OF DEATH INCOME TAX LOST

Mrs. Bruce Cartwright Summoned This Time.

A Noble Woman Who Will Be Missed By All—An Operation Failed to Save—The Funeral.

Mary Louise Cartwright, beloved wife of Bruce Cartwright, died last night at the Queen's hospital at 9:45 o'clock. Mrs. Cartwright was a beautiful woman of lovely character and was well known and prominent in social and religious circles here. She was as well a native daughter of the Golden West, coming of one of the first families of California. Her untimely death will be the occasion of the keenest grief wherever she was known.

For several months Mrs. Cartwright had been ailing. She had been of quite robust health, but disease claimed her and the drooping of strength finally became quite marked. For nearly a fortnight, at the home on Beretania, near Punnahou, the Macfarlane house lately occupied by the American consul, two physicians and a trained nurse had been in constant attendance upon the lady. A consultation was held and it was decided that the only hope, and that a desperate one, was in an operation. Mrs. Cartwright was taken to the hospital for this purpose and on Sunday last the only effort that could be made to save the life dear to so many was undertaken. At first it was thought that recovery had been assured and the sick woman seemed to rally. But there was a relapse, and after a noble fight, and one tempered with the consolation of a firm belief and faith in the Divine Master, a painless soul left the earthly tenement.

The funeral will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh.

To the care of the bereaved husband, who is a leading business man of the community, is left a son of 16 and a daughter of 14. Mrs. Cartwright, who was 37 years of age, was born in California, where there still resides her mother and three brothers and a sister. Her father, who died about nine years ago, was Norfolk Wells and like the father of Bruce Cartwright, was a pioneer of California. Norfolk Wells was one of the first settlers of Stanlaus county and is mentioned notably in the annals of the argonauts. Mrs.
Cartwright became the bride of Bruce Cartwright 18 years ago.

HAPPILY MATED.
A Bride From New Orleans and Groom From Maui.

The arrival here of a charming young lady on the Moana from San Francisco, a letter to Spreckelsville plantation and an answer in person—such were the events that led up to a happy wedding in St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday afternoon. It was the wedding of Miss Emma Quinby of Donaldsonville, Louisiana, and George M. Boote, manager of Spreckelsville plantation that called a small gathering of relatives and immediate friends to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh pronounced the words that joined the destinies of the two young people.

Miss Quinby comes from Donaldson-ville, a place near New Orleans while Mr. Boote is from St. Johns, a town some thirty miles away. Six years or more ago the two young people met and when Mr. Boote came out here to take the management of Spreckelsville plantation two years ago he left something behind he decided could not be left there any longer.

Miss Boote, sister of the groom was bridesmaid while P. S. Seales, bookkeeper at Spreckelsville, was best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the cottage of Mr. and Mrs.
Boote at the Hawaiian hotel where refreshments were served.
Mr. and Mrs. Boote will leave on the Claudine today for their future home on Maui.

Labrador Smugglers.
Judge Stanley yesterday committed three men of the schooner Labrador for trial on the charge of smuggling opium into the country. The defendants are John Haake, Jas. Carter and A. Weirich. Bail is fixed at $2,500 for each man. Paul Neumann has retired from the case. Counsel for the prisoners made the motion that his clients be discharged. This was overruled.

Tennis Party.

There was a dance given at the Wal-kiki home of Mrs. Wilder last night in honor of Willie Roth and Wilder Wight, the winners of the doubles in the tournament. A large number of young people were present and a most enjoyable time was spent. The evening was a perfect one for the occasion.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session of the House the Loan Bill was again taken up for consideration. The most important item was that of $257,000.00 for sewerage. Minister Cooper exhibited a number of maps showing the system proposed for Honolulu. Representative Pogue stated that he was in favor of a sewerage system for Honolulu, but he did not think it proper that the money should all be taken out of the proposed law. The property holders should pay for some part of the system. Ministers and members were in favor of a sewerage system.
The matter of using the sewage as fertilizer was spoken of. Representative Pogue stated that sewage had done a great deal of good for the farms in San Jose. Representative McCandless spoke of success in such countries as Belgium, where fruits, etc., were raised on the sandiest kind of soil by using sewage. The Chinese were referred to as being people who knew the value of sewage. Every bit was saved by them and used to great advantage.
Representative McCandless wanted the outlet on the west side of the harbor.
It would be dangerous on the east side, as proposed in the plans. The current was off to the westward and should therefore be placed there. The Attorney General explained that the matter had been thoroughly gone into by Mr. Herring, the engineer in whose hands the matter of a sewerage system had been placed. The Board of Health first recommended placing the outlet on the westward side, but Mr. Herring had found the east side better. Sewage was taken over a mile out to sea and upon returning was in such a diluted form that there was absolutely no danger.

Representative Richards made a long speech against the system. It was not a revenue producer and would come out of the expenses for all the Islands. Honolulu, as the seat of government, was getting about half of the appropriations and a line should be drawn when it was a question of $257-000.

Representatives Richards and Loeb-enstein then threw a few bouquets at each other, the former standing against and the latter for, the sewerage system.
Representatives Richards, Paris, Pogue and Kaal moved to strike out the item. Of course the motion was lost. The item then carried by a vote of 8 to 4.

House adjourned at 4 p. m.

Mixed Doubles.

There was only one match of mixed doubles played yesterday. This was between H. Waterhouse and Miss Grace King vs. D. Shanks and Miss Hart. The winners were Mr. Shanks and Miss Hart, the score being 6-2, 6-3. The play will be on the Beretania courts this afternoon as follows:

4 p. m.—W. H. Babbitt and Miss Young vs. D. Shanks and Miss Hart.

5 p. m.—A. St. M. Mackintosh and Miss May Young vs. W. A. Wall and Miss Ward.

The finals will be played tomorrow.

Many a domestic "tiff" has had its beginning in nothing more important than the abnormal strength of the but-sometimes he does, and the wife gets undeserved blame. She had implicit
